

SCANNER TECHNOLOGIES ANNOUNCES SETTLEMENT IN LITIGATION WITH AMERICAN ARIUM

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Wednesday, May 30, 2007--Scanner Technologies Corporation (OTCBB:SCNI - News) with headquarters in Minneapolis, MN today announced that it has reached a settlement in its ongoing litigation with American Arium in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.

In July of 2005, American Arium instituted an action against Scanner Technologies asking the court for a ruling that certain patents owned by Scanner are invalid and not infringed by Arium's products. The patents relate to the inspection and manufacture of ball grid array devices. In response to the action, Scanner asserted that Arium's products infringe the patents and asked the court to award Scanner a reasonable royalty.

In May of 2007, American Arium approached Scanner to discuss a settlement of the case and the parties were able to reach a settlement agreement. Under the terms of the agreement both parties agreed to drop all claims asserted against each other.

About Scanner Technologies Corporation:

Scanner is a New Mexico corporation that invents, develops and markets vision inspection products that are used in the semiconductor industry for the inspection of integrated circuits. Scanner's headquarters are located in Minneapolis, Minnesota and has a manufacturing facility in Tempe, Arizona. Scanner's stock is traded on the Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board under the symbol "SCNI." For more information please visit www.scannertech.com.

Contact:

Scanner Technologies Corporation
Elwin Beaty
763-476-8271